REACH / EU RoHS / Proposition 65 statement

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen

It's a pleasure for us to inform you about REACH as follows:

Lantal Textiles AG is a user and not a manufacturer of chemicals. According to the REACH definition, our products are so-called products. Pursuant for REACH the production and processing of our products, we use exclusively REACH-compliant chemicals along the entire supply chain.

The products of Lantal Textiles AG do not contain any substances of very high concern (SVHC) according to the candidate list. They are not harmful to the environment or health.

To ensure that we are always able to keep abreast of REACH dynamics, SWISS TEXTILES (Swiss Textile Federation) up to date us on an ongoing basis.

In brief, we can confirm that Lantal Textiles AG products are REACH-compliant.

All of the Lantal products meet also the requirements of Proposition 65 (formally titled "The Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986") in so far that they do not contain any of the chemicals known to the state of California to cause cancer or reproductive toxicity as defined in the Proposition 65 list duly published by The Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment (OEHHA).

As a manufacturer of the non-electrical and non-electronic products, we hereby inform you that the regulations of EU RoHS (EU legislation restricting the use of hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment) are not applicable to the Lantal products. Considering that fact, all of the Lantal products are automatically compliant with the EU RoHS requirements.

Please do not hesitate to contact us at any time if you have any questions. Your Lantal Textiles representative is at your disposal.

Kind regards

Heiko Nüssel
